DECISION

Kaivalyadhama Lonavla & Mumbai offers 10 days Yoga Training programme. The question of facilitating the participation of all the employees of the State Govt. in Yoga Training was placed before the State Government for consideration. Following decision has been taken:

- a) Application can be made to the state upon confirmation of the admission in the 10 day course for Yoga training at Kaivalyadhama Lonavla, and upon such confirmation 14 days commuted leave can be granted.
  - b) Above leave will be granted once in three years and 10 times in the service period of an employee.
  - c) The leave application should be accompanied by Admission letter from the institute and a letter/certificate of completion should also be submitted later for availing the benefit.
  - d) The related expenses for the training will have to be borne by the employees themselves.
  - e) The above leave cannot be considered as a matter of right.
2. This decision shall be enforceable from the notified date.
  3. It is hereby assumed that Maharashtra Service Rule (Leave), Rule, 1981 have been amended , the formal amendment shall be done accordingly in due course.
