Lt. Swami Kuvalayananda
FOUNDER PRINCIPAL

Dr. O. P. Tiwari
CHAIRMAN

Shri Subodh Tiwari
HON SECRETARY CEO

Letter from the CEO

Congratulations on your admission to Kaivalyadhama Yoga Institute. It brings me great pleasure to welcome you to the Kaivalyadhama family, a community of individuals dedicated to propelling the science of yoga to every corner of the world. Soon, you will be part of an institute with a deep historical eage, highly esteemed faculty, an exceptionally talented stu-dent body and international recognition.

Yoga signifies a harmonious integration at all levels of human existence. Literally meaning integration, the science of yoga originated and evolved systematically in India more than five thousand years ago and has essentially remained secular and hence is accepted by people of different religions, races and nationalities. Yoga is a path of spiritual enquiry directed to an objective understanding of all phenomena of life and living. Over the years, it has also evolved into a science of health and healing. According to Swami Kuvalayananda, yoga is equipped to realize the spiritual and material renaissance of human soci ety. This has been the very philosophy behind all academic and social activities of the college at which you will soon be studying: Gordhandas Seksaria College of Yoga & Cultural Synthesis.

As you embark on this journey, we will work our hardest to create a positive and enjoyable atmosphere for you. Our warm and dedicated staff is here to ensure that every aspect of your experience is fruitful. On behalf of the entire Kaivalyadhama community, I wish you an academic tenure of deep growth and learning.

Namaste,
Subodh Tiwari

This Guide contains information that will assist you in making the most of your experience both in Kaivalyadhama and in India. Please read it carefully. If you have any questions before your departure please feel free to contact:

Mr. Sushil Raisonni at college@kdham.com

Please note that activities and dates are subject to change. Updates will be posted on our website: www.kdham.com or sent to you via e-mail.

This booklet contains both general and urgent items to note and remember. We understand that due to time constraints, it may be difficult to go through the whole booklet in its entirety. While we do encourage you to read every-thing, given those constraints, please make sure to read the 'Most Important Items' first, as those are the most imminent.

Most Important Items

1. Visas: International Students will need to obtain a visa before arriving in India. Students pursuing a course that is less than 180 days are advised to procure a visitor's visa. Students pursuing a course that exceeds this duration are required to obtain a student visa. Those individuals of Indian Origin and Non-Resident Indians (NRIs) who possess either an OCI (Overseas Indian Citizenship) or a PIO card do not need to apply separately for a student visa. Students procuring a student visa should contact their local Indian Embassy when they receive a provisional admission letter from Kaivalyadhama to apply for a student visa. We will issue a document for visa purposes only after admission has been granted and 50% of your tuition fee has been received. You can submit that document to an "Indian Visa Issuing Agency in your home country to acquire a visa. For additional information, please refer to the "Visas and Documents" section.

2. Tuition: 50% of the tuition fee should be paid well in advance of starting the academic school year, unless a separate agreement has been made. The remaining 50% should be paid upon arrival at the institute. The tuition fee includes academic costs, as well as accommodation on campus and daily vegetarian meals. Please note, we can only reserve accommodations for those who have paid their fees. Thus, we highly encourage you to pay on time. Please refer to the "Fees" section for more insight.

3. Housing: As indicated above, your accommodation arrangements are included as part of your tuition fee. Please note that most of the dormitory options are shared bedrooms with private bathrooms. The dorm rooms are true to the essence of Yoga, minimalist in nature and not fully modern. They are, however, spacious and clean. You will be guided to your accommodation place on the day of your arrival. For more information, see the "Living in Kaivalyadhama" section below.

4. International Students are required to arrive on campus three days before the first day of classes. Should you decide to arrive any sooner, you will be subject to additional accommodation fees, as determined. Please refer to the "Living in Kaivalyadhama" section if you anticipate an early arrival.

5. Upon your arrival at Kaivalyadhama, those with a student visa will be required to fill up a "C" form as per the guidelines of the Government of India. This has to reach the concerned authorities within 24 hours. For additional information, please refer to the "Visas and Documents" section.

6. Checking in: On the day of your arrival at Kaivalyadhama, please proceed to the college office. There, you will receive your arrival package as well as arrangements for housing. If you have arrived at odd hours, security will guide you to your accommodation.

Most Important Items

7. Transportation: While you are responsible for your own transportation to Kaivalyadhama, the institute is happy to help you make the necessary arrangements for doing so. Please refer to the "Flights and Arrival" section for a list of available options on how to arrive here on time.

8. Health: With the exception of yellow fever, there are no health check requirements for visitors entering India. For students entering from certain yellow fever affected jurisdictions, a special certificate is required. We do, however, encourage you to contact your local physician for recommendations on vaccinations that should be taken prior to your arrival in India. Additionally, health insurance only covers hospitalization and emergency costs. All other care and forms of treatment must be paid for upfront. However, because the costs of treatments are usually extremely reasonable compared to other countries, we do not anticipate medical costs to be a significant expense during your stay. As such, we do not advise that you look into the option of a health care plan.

9. Preparing for your journey: For a comprehensive list of items to bring for your journey please see the section titled "What to Pack."

Kaivalyadhama

HISTORY

Kaivalyadhama was founded in 1924 by Swami Kuvalayananda and is, today, one of the oldest and foremost scientific yoga research institutes in the world. Inspired by his Guru, Sri Madhavadasji, a master of yoga, coupled with his own innate desire to bridge the gap between the physical and psycho-spiritual aspect of yoga, Swami Kuvalayananda was led down the path of a spiritual journey. This journey ultimately manifested in the founding of Kaivalyadhama, which has built itself on Swami Kuvalayananda's legacy and mission to bring together traditional yoga with modern science. A great visionary in his own right, Kuvalayanandaji, felt that yoga had the ability to positively transform and heal all elements of a person's life.

Building on the wisdom, knowledge and foundation that Swami Kuvalayananda established, Kaivalyadhama has become a place of spirituality and life transformation for thousands of people that hail from different countries and cultures. To say it is a place where people come simply to practice asanas would do it little justice, as this is just one small piece of the ashram's pie. Rather, Kaivalyadhama is a place of holistic learning, where there is an emphasis on the scientific aspect of yoga just as much as there is the physical.

Since its inception, the institute has flourished and seen immense growth. The first college of Yoga in the world was started in the year 1950 and has provided various educational outlets to those interested in pursuing a training and even diploma in yoga. As it continues to grow, it has expanded its educational offerings in ways that are easily accessible to every-one-whether it's through an online training course or by a one-year stay on the ashram. It strives to promote and educate the world not only on the authentic meaning behind yoga but also on the depth of its roots.

Since then, the College has been home to thousands of students from the global community. Money

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

As a foreign national, exchanging foreign currency might be procedural. Thus, we advise you to exchange your local currency at various stalls located within the airport. For those students pursuing a course of a longer duration, we understand that you may be hesitant in exchanging large sums of money. At Kaivalyadhama, our Accounts Department is also available to exchange money for you, but only upon prior request. Please inform the department a few days in advance of making the transaction. You can contact our accounts representative for further information.

BANK CARDS/DEBIT CARDS

Bank/debit cards are a quick way for you to get access to rupees. There are ATMs located all throughout Lonavala and most of India. We recommend using bank ATMs, which we feel are more secure. Some of these banks include: HDFC, ICICI and SBI. Please be sure to check with your respective bank that your debit card will work internationally and what charges are associated with using it abroad. You may also be subject to local withdrawal fees within India.

CREDIT CARDS

All major credit cards (Visa, MasterCard, American Express) are widely accepted throughout India. Credit cards will be accepted with larger vendors, such as hotels, restaurants and commercial malls. Many small businesses within the local market in Lonavala typically take cash only. Taxis typically take cash only. Please check with your credit card provider to ensure that it will work internationally and what fees are associated with over-seas charges.

Please make sure you arrive three days in advance of your respective course.

BAGGAGE INFORMATION

If you have any questions regarding luggage, please call the respective airline you are traveling with. Additionally, we do not recommend shipping your luggage. An entire host of problems can arise that could result in the delayed arrival of your bags, amongst other issues. Instead, we recommend that you pay for each additional piece taken on your flight.

ARRIVAL

If you are arriving from anywhere outside of India, your first point in Mumbai's airport will be Immigration. This process may take some time depending on how busy the airport is. Following Immigration, you will be directed to pick up your luggage. Once you have gathered all of your belongings, you will proceed to Customs and Declarations, where it is highly likely that your baggage will be re-examined vis-à-vis an X-Ray machine. HEALTH INSURANCE

Foreign students are not required to have medical insurance. Due to the relative inexpensive cost of health services in India, it is not necessary for you to purchase any sort of health care plan. If you are taking prescription medications, please carry extra supplies with you. It is likely that you can find the same medication here under the medication's generic name. However, we cannot make any guarantees. You are free to consult our resident physician who will have additional information on this matter. HEALTH CARE

As you may have experienced when visiting other foreign countries, your body will face certain adjustments in adapting to a new environment. Here are some things we advise you to be aware of.

Water: You may suffer from sensitivity to the local tap water. Thus, unless the local tap water is filtered we do not recommend that you consume it. All drinking water within the Ashram is filtered and is delineated as such. Bottled water is recommended for those with especially sensitive stomachs. If you leave the campus for any reason, please purchase bottled water.

Food: If this is your first visit to India, try to stay away from street food, at least initially. Although all meals will be provided for you within the ashram, one's curiosity will naturally wander towards all the flavors and spices that comprise the famous Indian cuisine. If you do happen to venture out for a meal, go to a local restaurant or hotel. Additionally, if you are averse to spicy foods make this clear to your waiter, as the Indian standard of spicy tends to be richer than most.

Public Toilets: Many public toilets in India are still based on the traditional squatting system. Thus, please do not be surprised if they are not equipped with toilet paper. Additionally, we cannot guarantee that public toilets will be up to your standards of cleanliness. Should you choose to use them, we advise that you carry a small sachet of antimicrobial wipes and hand sanitizer.

Pollution: In cities such as Mumbai and Delhi, the level of pollution is quite high. While it typically does not pose a large problem, for those people who may have respiratory problems, you should have a face-mask or handkerchief handy just in case. In Lonavala, this should not be a problem.

Sun: The intensity of the sun during the hot months (October-November and April-May) may prove strong to those who are not used to it. Please be prepared for the heat by carrying any sort of sun protection (sunscreen, caps, sunglasses etc.) that is most suitable and effective for you.

Mosquitos: Being a tropical country, India is home to mosquitos. They typically do not pose a large threat but are frequent visitors during the evening and nighttime. You should be prepared for them by wearing mosquito repellent. We will provide you with mosquito pods that plug into the wall. These are also available at either our on-site convenience store or in the Lonavala market should you wish to purchase additional pods.

What to pack

PERSONAL SUPPLIES

If you are arriving in Lonavala during the monsoon season (June-September) rain gear, such as an umbrella, a light raincoat and appropriate shoes to weather the rain are necessary. These items are all available in the market, however, we urge you to come prepared as it sometimes becomes difficult to venture out in the rain.

The dress code in India is casual, but you will have a set uniform that you are required to wear to class that respects the modesty of Kaivalyadhama. We further delineate this point in the "G.S College" section. During the rainy season, the temperature drops to between 23-25 degrees Celsius and the climate becomes damp. Pack according to your comfort and to the weather. We recommend light sweaters, especially in the evening/night time.

The rest of the year is warm or even hot. We recommend bringing clothes that are light and airy in nature. From December to February, the Indian "winter," the temperature is comfortable but may drop in the evenings. It might be useful for you to have some warm clothes. Heavy jackets are typically not necessary.

For tours and trips around the country, a pair of good walking shoes will be helpful.

Personal supplies, such as toiletries and cosmetics are available in Lonavala. However, it is possible that the brands of your preference may be unavailable. Please pack with this in mind.

ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES

The electrical current in India is 220 volts. You should bring a converter/transformer for certain appliances, such as cell phone or computer chargers, if you have them. The usage of high voltage electronics, such as electric kettles and plates, immersion rods, and irons are not permissible. If you have any questions on whether certain appliances are compatible with a transformer, be sure to visit your local authorized electronics dealer. A small flashlight is also

HOSTEL

All students in the program will be provided accommodation on campus in comfortable double occupancy rooms with a private bath. Female students will be accommodated in a building just adjacent to the main Health Care Center building that is referred to as "Amruta." Male students will be placed in "Soham Kutir," which is nestled in the east corner of the campus.

We have limited capacity to accommodate students who would like a private room. If you are interested in such a room, we ask you to contact our accommodation representative immediately as these rooms are available on a first-come first-service basis.

You may arrive on campus a week or two earlier than the start of your course, but at your own cost. Tuition fees do not cover advanced arrival. If you are interested, please refer to the link below for a list of different accommodations and their respective fees: <http://kdham.com/tariff/>.

You can communicate your desire to arrive early to our accommodation representative, who will help you make the necessary arrangements.

What to expect

You will find that the rooms are simple and clean, keeping to the authenticity of yoga. You will be provided a bed, bed sheets, a comforter, a pillow, mosquito pods, a dresser, and a desk to study. You are responsible for your own towels. Initially, your body may take some time to adjust to Indian mattresses and pillows, which are made out of dense cotton. If you would like, you are free to bring your own pillow. Further, almost all running hot water in India is dependent on an electric water heater, or "geyser" system (solar heaters), which means that you will not have on demand hot water in your shower as you may be used to. You can expect to have running hot water available to you within 5-10 minutes of turning on your geezer, which will be located in your bathroom. Always remember to switch it off after you are done using it.

What we ask

1. As this is your home and place for practicing yoga during your studies here, you are responsible for the cleanliness of your room and the adjoining passages. Please take care of our home and avoid causing any damage, such writing on walls, damaging furniture, door, windows etc. And, remember to shut off the electricity when you are not using.

2 You are requested to be back in your room by 9PM every night. Please contact your housing warden if any extenuating circumstances occur or if you would like to request permission to return to campus any later.

3 You are welcome to have guests visit you on Sundays. If you intend to have any visitors, please inform the college and accommodation representative accordingly. It is usually difficult for the institute to provide accommodation to guests. However, in the case of any emergencies a guest room may be provided depending on its availability.

4 If you are enrolled in a long term course we ask that you limit your travel to long holidays, such as Diwali, or before/after your course at Kaivalyadhama begins/ends. Due to the nature of your academic course load, we feel that it will be difficult for you to travel during this time. Thus, we ask our students to spend their free time in Lonavala.

5 If you leave campus grounds we ask that you fill out a specific form indicating your whereabouts each time you step off campus. This is simply to help us keep track the whereabouts of our students. You can get a copy of this form from our accommodation representative.

LAUNDRY

There are two options for cleaning your laundry at Kaivalyadhama.

1. Hand Wash: If you choose to wash your own laundry by hand, we will provide you with a laundry rack to dry your clothes. You can place the rack in your room or just outside of your door. A note of caution: During the monsoon, it will be difficult to air dry your laundry, especially dense clothes.

2. Laundry Service: We provide a daily laundry service that charges 15 rupees per article of clothing. This includes both washing and drying. You can also opt to have your clothes ironed for an additional fee of 15 rupees per article. If you want to participate in our laundry service, please express your interest while checking in. A word of advice: for any incredibly delicate items, we ask that you wash them your selves. We are not responsible for any damages

GARBAGE

You will be responsible for throwing away the waste in your room. As Kaivalyadhama has a policy to reduce the use of plastic for the protection of the environment, we have created separated disposal sites for waste by type. Please throw garbage in the necessary bins and leave plastic and glass at the recycle collecting point.

MEALS

You will be provided Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner during specific times in the day. The meals are all "Sattvic" in nature, meaning they are pure vegetarian and are made without any onions or garlic. Student meals will be arranged in the Annapurna Mess. You will be given a schedule that details the different timings that the meals will be provided. If you have any dietary restrictions, please communicate this to the mess coordinator.

What to expect

The method of seating is traditional Indian, meaning it is on the floor. Do not worry the area is cleaned after every meal. If you have any physical difficulties, there is a table we can accommodate you on. Shoes are strictly prohibited and should be kept outside in designated racks. You are also responsible for your own dishes, which you can wash in a designated washbasin and then return to the ashram. Outside food items are not to be consumed in the mess.

What we ask:

1. At Kaivalyadhama, we pride ourselves on tradition. An ancient Yogic tradition is to respect the food that you eat and to become one with your meal. In doing so, we request that you either keep silence or use hushed voices in speaking with your classmates during mealtime.

Living in kaivalyadhama

2. Please silence all cell phones and maintain the same dress code as the one you wear to class. If you do not wish to have lunch or dinner, kindly inform the mess a day beforehand to avoid the wastage of food.

A member of our staff will accompany you shortly after your arrival to help you purchase both a prepaid SIM Card and a cell phone, if you do not already have one. You can also purchase SIM Cards at the Mumbai Airport.

We recommend the following networks: Airtel, Vodafone, Reliance, and BSNL.

We also recommend checking with a network provider in the country of your residence to see if you can get a global calling package with your current cell phone service.

In the event of any emergencies, callers can call our offices from Monday through Saturday. We are closed on Sundays. The direct number to the Health Care Center is:

Incredible India!

SETTING EXPECTATIONS

You are about to embark upon a great spiritual journey in the world's largest democracy. India is a place with a plethora of people, cultures, regions, cuisines, and religions. At both Kaivalyadhama and in India, you will be surprised by the boundless wonders that exist, tested in ways that are unimaginable and romanticized by the generosity of its people. No matter the situation, we ask you to come with an open mind and a bright sense of humor. After all, laughter is the best medicine. Leave all preconceived notions behind! In helping you prepare for your journey, here are a few insights into Indian culture and life.

Indian Etiquette: Indians are very free with the natural rhythms of their body. Certain etiquettes, such as belching and passing gas, are not considered rude if done in public. There is no stigma in doing so as the culture here does not promote the suppression of these natural bodily functions. Should you feel comfortable, you are free to do the same. From time to time, you may also see people touching each other's feet. This is an expression of how Indians show respect for their elders and in exchange receive their blessings.

Personal Space and Privacy: The concept of boundaries is very different in India. Personal space and privacy are not understood in the same way as in other cultures. Indians tend to be very curious, asking many questions that may seem personal in nature. This is their mechanism of expressing interest in you and they do not mean any harm in doing so. While this may strike you as uncomfortable at first, you are welcome to reciprocate in asking them the same questions. Do not feel compelled to answer their questions if you do not want to.

Cleanliness: We ask you to have reasonable standards of public cleanliness. During your time in India, you may see large piles of garbage on the side of the road, or under kept public toilets. Additionally, if you are visiting anywhere outside of Kaivalyadhama, you might not necessarily find a western toilet and shower. Always try to keep hand sanitizer and antimicrobial wipes if you are traveling outside of the campus. Due to India's large population of those in poverty, you may also witness certain social circumstances that you may be unaccustomed to. On that note, however, you can help us keep both India and the ashram clean by remembering to dispose and recycle your waste.

Smells: India is a land of paradoxes. At times, there can be a smell of waste, especially in larger cities. On the other hand, however, the smell of incense and flavorful spices is intoxicating. Within the pristine borders of Kaivalyadhama, you should not expect to have a problem with cleanliness or odors. If you are particularly sensitive to different smells, you should bring a facemask or use a handkerchief while leaving campus doors.

Incredible india!

Traffic: Traffic in India is chaotic, but well regulated. You will come to notice that lanes are virtually invisible and that drivers overtake one another by weaving from both sides of the road. You will also find that some drivers are Speed Racer incarnate and like to drive much faster than the designated limit. While seat belts are not required for back seat passengers, we highly recommend it. Due to India's immense population, it can be particularly difficult to travel by car/taxi during rush hour, especially in large metropolitan cities. Most Indian drivers are also attached to their horns you will find that they honk in almost any driving situation: turning corners, stuck in traffic, overtaking others, or simply for the mere pleasure of honking. Worry not. however, as driving in India is an art that nearly every driver has mastered.

Cows and other animals: In almost all parts of the nation, cows are respected animals and pedestrians. They freely meander in public spaces and you may even find them sitting calmly in the middle of traffic. Don't worry our drivers are well prepared for even this situation. They tend to be pleasant and harmless if you leave them be. Occasionally you may find donkeys and bull-ock carts on the road as well. From time to time, you may also find wild monkeys. While they may appear cute harmless, they have a masked ferocity that becomes more apparent if you get too close Poverty: There is a large disparity between the rich and poor in India. We understand that it will be difficult for many of you to confront but be prepared to see slums and beggars. In outdoor markets and while sitting in traffic it is possible that you could be approached by beggars. We typically discourage you from giving them money.

Monsoon: From the beginning of June until early September is monsoon season throughout India. In the state of Maharashtra, especially, the rain has a heavy effect. The rain can continue for days on end before stopping and the air becomes a bit humid, which may make it difficult to air dry your clothes. The temperature becomes cool in the evenings as well. The intensity of the rain may also make it difficult for you to leave campus grounds. Be prepared for the weather by bringing the correct gear and a positive state of mind.

Electricity: You may experience an occasional power outage, as there is an energy shortage in India. We do have reserve energy supplies that are powered through our generators if there are persistent outages. You may find that the outages become more frequent due to the rain. Having a small flashlight or candle in your room is advised.

Tipping: Tipping is not a requirement in India and is completely dependent upon you. If you are pleased with the service you received, we recommend tipping between 10% and 12%.

Living in Lonavala

Lonavala is a small hill station tucked in the auroral green of the Shyadri Mountain Range. Its scenic atmosphere is home to hik-ing adventures, a shooting hot spot for the Bollywood industry and known for its famous "Chikki," a sweet dish made from groundnuts and fresh jaggery.

GETTING AROUND

It is very easy to get around Lonavala via rickshaw. Kaivalyadhama has a trusted relationship with local rickshaw drivers, who are available to pick you up from the institute's main gate whenever you would like to leave the campus. Their contact information is provided below:

In that area, you will find an assortment of clothes, stores for your personal appliances, a large variety of different foods and of course, Chikki. We also recommend the "Trioze Center," which a small indoor area with lots of great food and a few clothing stores. PLACES TO VISIT

During your free time and days off, you may be interested in taking a local excursion. Most of these places are accessible by rickshaw within 15-25 minutes. If you have any doubts, please liaise with our accommodation representative. A few places we recommend:

Karla Caves: This complex of cave shrines were built by Buddhist monks around the 3rd to 2nd century B.C.

Tiger's Point: This scenic spot sits atop a steep cliff with a six hundred fifty meter drop. Just around the corner from this point is a small waterfall that comes alive only during monsoon season.

Lion's Point: This spot, located between the Bhushi Dam and Amby Valley, is a stellar location to watch Sunsets during the non-monsoon season.

Lohagad Fort: Also known as the Iron Fort, this symbolic landmark was once a battle station for the famous warrior king, Shivaji. A good workout, this 11 kilometer trek uphill will help you de-stress while making you feel like you've gone back in time.

Rajmachi: This small, quaint village is home to two forts: Shrivardhan and Manaranjan. This hiking hot spot is home to an area known as Borghat, which was a strategic and highly contested trade route.

Karla Caves, Lonavia

Ajanta Caves: Located in the Aurangabad district of Maharashtra, these Buddhist caves are the emblems of some of India's finest art. Dating back to the 2nd century BCE, within these caves reside masterpieces of Buddhist religious art, both in painting and sculptural form. The area is a protected monument and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Please note: an overnight journey is required to visit the caves, as they are physically located over 200 kilometers outside of Lonavala. We recommend you save this trip for a longer holiday.
